CECIL'S STAND MAY PROMOTE DISARM MOVE

Frank Statement When Viscount Resigns Produces Favorable Reaction

U. S. TO KEEP UP DEBATE

Statesman's Views Will Aid Public to Understand Failure at Geneva

Washington—Renewed hope has developed here that the movement for a reduction of naval armament may yet succeed. The frank statement by Viscount Cecil that he was out of sympathy with the British government's instructions to him at Geneva which he now has made the occasion for resignation, has produced a favorable reaction here.

Many of those who knew Viscount Cecil and his intimate understanding of the American viewpoint gained on visits to America and contact with American diplomats at Paris were surprised at some of the speeches he was obliged to make at the recent armament conference. It didn't sound like Viscount Cecil, the man who helped to found the league of nations and one of the staunchest defenders of America's post-war policy.

If, therefore, one of the principal delegates to the Arment conference from the nation which was unable to accept America's proposals now comes out with a criticism of the British government's policy, the opportunity for the discussion to be renewed at some future date is expected to arise. What puzzled American observers was that Britain should exhibit in 1927 an attitude toward the problem of limiting armaments so different from that manifested here in 1921. If there were possibilities of friction between the United States and Britain, the reason for continued competition might be understood but the American government sees no reason why the two most powerful navies of the world, which have out-distanced the other countries, should be quarreling about the size of vessels of any type. The two navies to gather present the most powerful combination of armament the world has yet known and in the recent world war they cooperated as a unit.

HELPS UNDERSTANDING

Viscount Cecil's statement that Britain should have met the position at Geneva without sacrificing British interests is regarded here as a manly and sportsmanlike declaration and will go far toward aiding public opinion to understand the causes of the break down.

The fact that there is a division of opinion abroad on the armament problem will stimulate the American government to keep up the debate in the hope that through diplomatic channels some fundamental agreement may yet be reached which will make it possible to apply a treaty among Britain, the United States and Japan.

COURT RULES AGAINST OLD SUPERIOR OFFICIAL

Superior—(P)—Paul R. Spencer was forbidden to act as school superintendent by an injunction granted by W. R. Foley in circuit court Wednesday. The injunction follows a restraining order obtained against Spencer last week by the city's "new" board of education. The "new" board maintained Spencer failed to cooperate.

MEXICAN AGRARIAN IS KILLED IN ARMED CLASH

Mexico City, Mex.—(P)—General Manuel Montes, former governor of Puebla and well known agrarian leader, is said in Puebla dispatches to have been killed in a clash between armed agrarians and factory workers at El Moral. Federal troops restored order after a half hour's fighting with the agrarians in which several agrarians were killed.

A "Crying" Need

Some little tale was in crying need of a baby carriage. All that was necessary for the parents to do was to turn to the classified section of the Post-Crescent.

Mr. Norman Thib, 318 W. College Ave., manager of the Unesco Damp Wash Laundry, needs a lady to say "laundry" as his one time insertion of a classified advertisement offering a baby buggy for sale brought the desired results. And the baby, the parents and the seller were all satisfied.

GIVEN FREEDOM

Former Governor Warren T. McCray of Indiana, who was released Wednesday from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., after serving 11-1/2 years of a 10-year sentence for using the United States mails to defraud.

FARM AND MILL URGED TO SIGN PACT OF PEACE

Governor Points to Ravages of Economic War in State Fair Speech

Milwaukee—(P)—Governor Fred R. Zimmerman, making the governor's annual address at the Wisconsin State Fair Wednesday, pleaded with the farmers and manufacturers to establish a "firm and everlasting peace for the betterment of all."

"No one can view the exhibits here without realizing that farming and manufacturing must go hand in hand and that war between them means a dead loss to both industries," Gov. Zimmerman said.

"War profiteers we have with us always; their activities are not confined to international war. The economic wars within the state also produce spoils for the professional politician and agitator who is often responsible for them."

"I am not a pacifist in the sense that I would not resist evil, but it does not require the gift of second sight to see that organized war is always unprofitable, to the victor as well as to the vanquished, and thus it is to be avoided."

BUS FIRM CHALLENGES RULE BY COMMISSION

Madison—(P)—A petition to enjoin the railroad commission of Wisconsin from enforcing chapter 336 laws of 1927, placing truck and bus lines under control of the railroad commission as to rates schedules and routes, on the ground that it is unconstitutional, was filed in Dane county circuit court at Madison, Wednesday.

The action is brought on behalf of the Northern Transportation company of Green Bay, operating a fleet of trucks between Green Bay and Milwaukee, together with a number of other truck lines.

The law took effect July 11 and this is the first challenge to its constitutionality to reach the stage of court action.

WOMEN PREDICT DEFEAT OF SMITH WITHIN PARTY

Minneapolis—(P)—Defeat of Al Smith "from the inside of the Democratic party" was predicted from the floor at the National Women's Christian Temperance union's annual convention Wednesday following reading of a telegram from the National Women's Democratic Law Enforcement league, endorsing the union's stand in demanding "bone dry" platforms and candidates in the next presidential elections.

In fiery speech, following the reading of the telegram, Mrs. Leigh Colvin, president of the New York W. C. T. U., declared that "this means the defeat of Al Smith from the inside of the Democratic party."

M'CRAY FREED FROM PRISON AT ATLANTA

Former Indiana Governor Out on Parole After Serving Third of Term

Atlanta, Ga.—(P)—Warren T. McCray, former governor of Indiana, was released from the federal penitentiary at 12:51 Wednesday afternoon after serving three years and four months of a ten year sentence for "use of the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud."

With McCray as he left the penitentiary grounds were William P. Evans, his son-in-law, Indianapolis attorney who resigned an attorney general when charges were preferred against the former governor, John Moorman, an old friend and member of the Indiana state commission, and Roltan Eggleston, local theatrical man, formerly of Indianapolis.

RELEASE IS ORDERED

Washington, D. C.—(P)—Telegraphic instructions were sent to Warden Snook of the Atlanta penitentiary Wednesday ordering the immediate release of former Governor Warren T. McCray of Indiana.

The aged former state executive played in 1921 from the position of a millionaire cattle breeder and nationally known gentleman farmer to a convict's number because of use of the mails to defraud, in the collapse of his financial interests. He was granted his freedom by Attorney General Sargent.

McCray Wednesday rounded out three years and four months in the prison, one-third of the term. His services made him eligible for parole and the attorney general approved a recommendation for such a step, made by the parole board.

McCray was fined $10,000, but the department of justice will not press its collection although it will remain as a judgment against him. McCray's wife, son and daughter live in Indianapolis and he is expected to return to that city.

ASKS PUBLIC FAITH

Indianapolis—(P)—"I am coming back," former Governor Warren T. McCray of Indiana said when he entered the federal prison at Atlanta on May 1, 1924, to start a ten year sentence imposed for use of the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud.

He asked the Indiana public to have faith in him, hoped for an opportunity to vindicate himself and to pay back every cent lost by friends and associates in his financial collapse, and declared that if he had an opportunity he would prove that he had no intent to defraud any one.

Known as a millionaire and an astute business man, McCray had no bad habits when he became governor of Indiana in 1921. McCray was caught in the deflation of farm land values which soon wiped out his fortune. On the witness stand in his trial he admitted signing names of other persons to notes, but disclaimed any intent of forgery or falsification. At one time he was one of Indiana's largest landholders.

SCORE ESCAPES DEATH AS INTERURBANS CRASH

Green Bay—(P)—Nearly a score of persons escaped death or injury when two interurban cars of the Wisconsin Public Service Co. crashed into each other head-on near the Northwestern fair grounds Tuesday night. The collision of the cars escaped with a score of persons escaping with a score of bruises. Disregard of orders by Gus Obery, motorman of a southbound "fair extra," was responsible for the crash, company officials stated Tuesday night.

The law took effect July 11 and this is the first challenge to its constitutionality to reach the stage of court action.

Minneapolis—(P)—Defeat of Al Smith "from the inside of the Democratic party" was predicted from the floor at the National Women's Christian Temperance union's annual convention Wednesday following reading of a telegram from the National Women's Democratic Law Enforcement league, endorsing the union's stand in demanding "bone dry" platforms and candidates in the next presidential elections.

Now's Time For All Good Men To Aid Their Party

Milwaukee—(P)—The Republican conference at Wausau, Sept. 8, is sponsored by a committee of state legislators who hope a separate organization to carry on the presidential delegate campaign may result.

State Senator Walter S. Goodland said Wednesday in a statement, "Senator Goodland issued the statement to correct the misunderstanding that he has noticed. He is a member of the legislative committee, together with Senator Harry Dargatz of Milwaukee, and Assemblymen Frank Lawson, Walworth; Conrad Shearer, Kenosha, and George Hinkley of Milwaukee."

"All Republicans, fair-minded and liberal, who desire to see the Republican party successful in the next national election are invited," he said. "The conference is in the interest of no faction, clique or candidate, he added."

The Wausau conference was determined upon as the result of a meeting of the members of the legislature held a few days before adjournment," his statement said. "After discussing the situation at this meeting, it was decided to appoint a committee of five members of the legislature to confer with other Republicans and determine upon some course of action. The call for the conference was issued and signed by Senator Dargatz upon the authority of the legislative committee."

"While the formal notice was confined to county chairmen of the Republican organization and Republican members of the legislature, it is understood and intended that the conference will be open to any Republican who desires to attend."

"Republicans generally are urged to be present so as to make the conference as fully representative as possible. There will be opportunity for the fullest and fairest discussion and for such action as shall then be found to be desirable."

"It is probable that a separate organization will be created to take charge of and carry on the delegate campaign to follow."

"Certainly the time ought to have arrived in Wisconsin when Republicans can meet as Republicans without selfish or personal motives of any kind. It is hoped to make the Wausau meeting such a conference."

ADJOURN HEARINGS IN CRANDON CLEANUP

Circuit Court Sessions Continued to Next Month—Eight Men Pay Fines

Crandon—(P)—Refusing to hear any of the more than a score of pleas in abatement filed in connection with indictments returned by the grand jury, Circuit Judge C. A. Fowler, Fond du Lac, adjourned sessions Tuesday to be resumed some time next month.

Roland Steine, Milwaukee, special prosecutor in the grand jury investigation of Forest-Corbin and political conditions called a year ago, asked that the dismissal of bribery charges against four Forest-Corbin citizens be quashed and that the men held for trial on the grounds of new evidence.

As he came out of the court, the men were met by Judge Fowler. They were then taken to the county jail, where they were lodged and where they were to remain until the next session of the court.

Judge Fowler presided at the hearings in place of W. B. Quinlan, Milwaukee, against whom the affidavits of the persons indicted in liquor law violation charges. They paid fines ranging from $100 and costs to $200 and costs.

GERMAN LEADS SWIMMERS IN 21-MILE RACE

George Young Withdraws from Marathon When Seized by Cramps 5 Miles Out

Toronto, Ont.—(P)—Ernest Vierkoetter, the steady old German conqueror of the English channel, passed the eight mile mark on the 21-mile marathon Wednesday afternoon, still two miles in the lead of 101 entrants in the $50,000 Lake Ontario swim.

Battling brutally cold water and a slightly increasing choppy sea, entrants fell by the wayside by the scores, the last few miles of the first third being hurried by rescuers more thrilling than the water classic itself.

Lyron Summers of San Francisco, and his brass band dropped out of the marathon a little after 2 o'clock, relinquishing the second place he had held for seven miles.

At the five mile point when the Toronto boy battled with the cramps his handlers seized him. When it was seen that the Toronto swimmer had abandoned the course, cheers volleyed from the German boat as Vierkoetter's handlers encouraged their kinsman.

Vierkoetter, calmly but strongly pulling through the water, shot ahead, and by 11:30 was a long figure a mile and a half ahead of swimmers of California. The tenth person at the course was a woman, Ethel Herlie of New York, who at the four mile buoy was nearly a mile ahead of the next woman in the race.

Edward Knecht of New York, winner of the recent race on Lake George, dropped out after going seven miles.

SHOCK KILLS WOMAN AS AUTOMOBILE IS UPSET

Green Bay—(P)—Mrs. Anton Van Duse, 76, of the town of Scott, Brown County, died, presumably from shock, after the car driven by her son, George, 35, left the road and overturned on Highway 78 near Bay settlement, early Wednesday morning. She had suffered no visible injuries, but was dead when brought to a hospital here.

Her son was cut and bruised about the head and is in a local hospital. An inquest will be held Thursday. According to the son's story, a deer appeared in the road and started him so that he turned out and was unable to get the car back on the road. It ran into the ditch and overturned.

EXPLORER AND PARTY SLAIN BY CHINESE

Noted German and Companions Reported Victims in Szechwan Province

New York—(P)—The New York World Wednesday says that a message telling of the massacre of a party of white men led into Szechwan province, China, by Dr. Wilhelm Filchner, noted German explorer, has been intercepted by its wireless station.

The report of a British resident of Sikkim, India, that Filchner and his party, which included V. G. Plymire of the American embassy of God mission, and W. Watkinson, an Englishman of the "Himal India mission," were slain by hostile natives was relayed by the German trans-oceanic wireless press. The expedition was crossing the wild and mountainous region of central China, he added, for India and was approaching Tibet from the east.

IN FORBIDDEN TERRITORY

It was in Tibet that Dr. Filchner first won renown by penetrating forbidden territory and visiting the "Worshipers" at the risk of his life. His wife, disguised as a man, because of tribal prejudices among the Tibetans, accompanied him on early expeditions. Dr. Filchner was also famous for his leadership of south polar expeditions, backed by the German kaiser, prior to the world war. He was later a German staff officer.

Despatches from Peking Tuesday said that the British legation had asked the Chinese foreign office to investigate the fate of the white men, following receipt of an official message saying that "three Europeans were slain near the Tibetan border by tribesmen."

FIVE BUILDINGS BURN; LOSS SET AT $300,000

Waukegan Ill.—(P)—Fire which broke out shortly after 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in a store at Waukegan's main corner still raged shortly before noon, with five buildings in flames and damage estimated at $300,000.

There was no wind to fan the flames. The Waukegan fire department was powerless to cope with the greatest fire in its history, and other nearby departments gave aid. The fire broke out in the National Tea Co. store and is believed to have started in a rubbish heap in the basement.

One fireman was overcome by smoke and taken to a hospital. One of the buildings burned was the seventy-five-year old Pearce building, a Waukegan landmark.

PRINCESS IS PASSENGER

62-year-old Woman Finances Trip—Is Certain That Plane Will Reach Goal

BULLETIN

Belfast, Ireland—(P)—The trans-Atlantic plane of Captain Leslie Hamilton and Col. F. F. Minchin is reported from Galway to have passed over Inveran, near the coast of Galway bay, at 12:10 Wednesday afternoon, proceeding west.

BULLETIN

(By the Associated Press)

Later this afternoon eight hours after leaving Ireland westward over the Atlantic, the plane St. Raphael, carrying two pilots and a woman passenger, was unreported by any of the numerous steamers which the Associated Press asked to watch. At that time it was known speed up to passing out of sight of land, the St. Raphael would be nearing mid-Atlantic. Its expected course was so far north of the Amundsen steamship lanes that chances for any one to sight it were slight.

3 OTHER PLANES READY

One airplane was flying over the north Atlantic ocean Wednesday with possibilities that three more trans-Atlantic planes would be in the air by Wednesday night. The monoplane St. Raphael, carrying the first woman trans-Atlantic passenger, Princess Lowenstein-Wertheim, crossed the Irish coast westward for Ottawa, Canada, early Wednesday.

At Windsor, Canada, the plane, which will attempt to hop to Windsor, England, was waiting with a clock set as starting time, contingent on weather.

In New York the Old Glory, Hearst plane, with Rome as its objective, was hopeful of a late-afternoon start.

GERMANS PREPARE

Frederich Loese, Herman Koch and Baron Ehrenfeld, Gunther Von Huenfeld had their plane on the runway at Dessau, Germany, for a possible flight on Wednesday morning for a flight over the Atlantic for Canada.

The round the world flight of the Fride of Detroit had reached Constantinople, about one-sixth of its distance around the globe in a 500 mile hop Wednesday.

Levine's Columbia was making ready to attempt a passenger hop, which provided the constitutional attempt of the princess's plane fails.

Captain Robert Macintosh's trans-Atlantic plane reached Limpne, England, Wednesday from Rotterdam, enroute to its base in Ireland, whence it is planned to try the westward flight soon.

At London, Ont., the Sir John Carling, which started once on a non-stop flight to London, England, was waiting good weather for a hop to Harbor Grace, N. F.

THREE IN PLANE

Upavon, England—(P)—After waiting at the army airbase here for favorable weather, Capt. Leslie Hamilton and Lieut. Colonel F. F. Minchin with Princess Lowenstein-Wertheim as a passenger left here at 7:40 Wednesday morning in a monoplane the St. Raphael, in an attempt to fly to Canada.

He had fuel for a 44 hour flight but expected to reach Ottawa in 37 hours. After landing at Ottawa they were to go on to London. Ontario, claim the plane was to make a flight over the Atlantic for a flight over the Atlantic for Canada.

They made a beautiful take off after running about three-quarters of a mile. Run was falling and it was very misty. At the east end of the field the fliers narrowly missed hitting the roof of a house. Minchin had the wheel at the start, but Hamilton expected to go most of the flying.

When the princess, who is financing the flight, entered the plane she took off her cloak, revealing she was wearing a purple leather coat, a fur-trimmed hat, and a black and white stockings and brown leather boots with black fur around the tops. She carried her own supply of food in a leather bag and a wicker basket.

With her on arrival at the field the princess said to her pilot, "I hope we are going to make it. I'll end you a little from Canada."

The course set by the aviators was for the coast of Ireland, after which they expected to make about twenty miles south of Dublin, thence to Clifden and Galway, where they were to strike the coast of the Atlantic for St. John's, N. F.

The plane is the type used daily in the London-Amsterdam service. It has a large 500-horsepower Bristol Jupiter engine and has the letters "GFR-BT" and the name "St. Raphael" on its side. It has a collapsible rubber boat.

SMITH AND VARE
WON'T GET SEATS,
LA FOLLETTE SAYS

Badger Senator Condemns
Political Corruption in Talk
at Prairie du Sac

Prairie du Sac—(P)—If corruption which has been manifested in Pennsylvania and Illinois is allowed to continue democracy must fail, Senator (Robert M. La Follette, Jr., speaking at a farmers' picnic here said Wednesday afternoon. Senator La Follette declared that the issue raised in the corruption disclosed at the primaries of Pennsylvania and Illinois was greater than parties or fortunes and more important than questions of public importance. Senator La Follette was the Progressive member of the Senate committee which investigated the primaries of these two states. Senator La Follette predicted that this battle would be renewed at the opening of the session of Congress in December.

"The corruption disclosed in Illinois and Pennsylvania raises an issue as great as government itself," declared Senator La Follette. "Unless our elections can be freed from the hereditary influence of the moneyed class, our government in democracy must fail. All these festering foci of infection are not eradicated, the entire system of representative government will become contaminated, undermined and destroyed."

PEOPLE MUST ACT
The issue raised is greater than parties or factions and transcends in seriousness all other matters of public concern. The final responsibility for purging our government of all corruption rests with the people themselves. They must act. They must raise their ballots. They must concentrate on electing those representatives who in Congress will defend and conserve the pollution of the fountain head of democracy. We have encouraging examples of what an aroused public opinion can and will do. The great majority of the Senators who voted to seat Newberry of Michigan, in the Senate in 1922 have been retired to private life.

"The temporary advantage gained by Road and Mellon in defeating the resolution for the slash fund committee was won at the cost of defeating important legislation. It demonstrated the length to which the great financial interest will go in their determination to maintain their political power at all costs."

"No doubt Senator Reed and Secretary Mellon are enjoying a much happier vacation than would have been possible if the committee were in session continuing their exposure of the shameful conditions in the great estate of Pennsylvania. They no doubt hope that public interest in the situation will abate and that with the aid of the Old Guard Republicans in the Administration and the Senate, they will be able to seat Vane and Smith when Congress meets next December."

"The Old Guard will never seat Smith and Vane, David A. Reed, and Andrew W. Mellon to the contrary notwithstanding. The fighting group of Progressive Republicans under the leadership of George W. Norris will defeat their plans. My faith that the Senate will not be degraded by the presence of Smith and Vane is based on the 1926 elections. The result greatly strengthened the progressive group in the Senate."

"You have not forgotten that Blaine defeated Lenroot. We know that Blaine will be a powerful asset to the progressive group. The loss of Lenroot, like that of Wadsworth, is a hard blow for the Old Guard."

"In the Senate the Progressives will hold the balance of power as they did in 1922 and 24. During those years the accomplishment of the Progressive group was great. The looting of the Naval Oil Reserves, the graft in the Department of Justice, under Daugherty, were exposed. The Mellon Tax Plan in the interest of millionaires was defeated and partial publicity of income tax returns obtained. The sale of Muscle Shoals to the Power Trust was prevented. The reactionary veto in 1924 enabled the Old Guard to run through the Mellon tax."

"In the next Congress the Progressives will again hold the balance of power."

MOVE TAX REDUCTION
In the next session Secretary Mellon, backed by the administration, will attempt to further reduce the taxes on the great fortune and profiteering corporations. The income and inheritance taxes are based on the sound policy that taxes must be levied in accordance with the ability of the tax payer to carry the burden. That principle is recognized as sound economic and social doctrine by every sensible member of the nation. During the administration of President Harding and Coolidge, Secretary Mellon has succeeded in reducing taxes on great wealth and the profiteering corporations by more than three billions of dollars.

"In spite of these enormous reductions another drive in the next Congress is to be made to further reduce these taxes and for the complete repeal of the federal inheritance tax. Great wealth is to be further unburdened and the burden shifted to the backs of the great mass of the people. The surplus in the Treasury is to be used for this purpose in order that the Republican party may have a clean record of tax reduction for the campaign of 1928."

"The Progressives will take the last ditch to prevent the reduction of the tax and to prevent Secretary Mellon and his supporters from further disorganizing the progressive group by reductions upon great wealth."

LEGION DANCE TO BE "BIG AFFAIR"

Committees Decide to Hold
Party in Armory G on September 14

So much enthusiasm has been aroused among members of the Oneida Legion and its auxiliary by the announcement of a joint meeting and dance, that arrangements were made Tuesday evening to change the place and date of the dance. The dance was to have been held at Elk hall on Monday, Sept. 12, at the regular meeting, but has been changed to Armory G on Sept. 14, at a joint session of the post executive and entertainment committees. The large space assured for all dancers and guests, the committees decided.

Robert M. Connelly was named chairman of the dance committee and A. H. Bunk was selected to take charge of ticket sales. All members of the executive committee and officers of the auxiliary will sell the tickets. James H. Balliet spoke to the committee in behalf of the composite Wisconsin Legion band which will represent the state at the annual convention in Paris. The committee voted unanimously to support the band by selling tickets for the fare and concert of the organization on Sept. 6 at Lawrence Memorial chapel. After the concert the band will entertain for New York and Paris. Post members will escort the bandmen to the depot.

Committee members present at the Tuesday session were Harvey Kie, post commander, Lester Smith, chairman, August Arens, Roy Hauert, Fred Heinrich, A. H. Bunk, J. H. Balliet, C. O. Baetz, R. M. Connelly and Henry Ullman.

QUIT DRAGGING FOR
BODY OF ROBBER

Police Convinced Van Roy's Assailant Managed to Swim to Safety

No further effort is being made by police to recover the body of the robber supposed to have drowned in the Fox River into which he fell following a hand-to-hand tussle with Officer Lester Van Roy on a railroad trestle Sunday night. Although a coat containing a small amount of money, a fountain pen and a watch was found in the river by the police, Chief George T. Prim, said Wednesday that the robber evidently got away. He said efforts to locate the body had failed and he believed the unknown man had managed to escape drowning and got away under cover of darkness.

Several clues were being investigated Wednesday by detectives working on the case, and it was expected that some results would be obtained. Several suspects questioned Tuesday and Wednesday were released after they established alibis.

France Ready To Fight
For Tourist Trade Share

BY MINOTT SAUNDERS
Paris—The tourist season this year has been such a dismal disappointment that steps are already being taken in government circles to put France back into its preferential position.

Even the American Legion convention will not bring the business that was anticipated. Hotel, restaurant and storekeepers are greatly dismayed. Many of them now realize that their expectations, based on former seasons with a more advantageous exchange, were too high and that they went too far.

BEGIN CAMPAIGN
It is too late now to recoup this year, but a determined movement has been started, headed by M. Tardieu, minister of public works, to bring the tourist business here next year. An extensive propaganda campaign in foreign countries, particularly the United States and Germany, is being planned. Local interest will work with steamship and railway services, and already established tourist agencies, to attract the travelers.

M. Tardieu has taken the problem to Premier Poincare, who has given a sympathetic ear to the various possibilities of exploiting France in other lands. It is now realized here that the racial propaganda of such countries as Belgium, Sweden and Italy, while France was doing nothing to bring business, has diverted travel from this country.

WILL ADVERTISE
The result is that France will adopt competitive methods. French tourist agencies will be encouraged in American cities, also such capitals as London, Vienna, Copenhagen, Berlin and Madrid and other important centers, to advertise the advantages of French beach and mountain resorts and watering places and attract tourist patronage.

This is rather a remarkable maneuver for the French to take. In years past, especially since the war, France has had the lion's share of tourist business. The slump of this season, however, has been a lesson.

During the last three years the city of Paris has been busy with some notable improvements, and now another great beautification enterprise is being hastened. It embraces the extension of the Champs Elysees, the famous boulevard that extends from the Place de la Concorde to the Arc de Triomphe, to make the highway one

RAILROAD COMPANY MAY ABANDON RAILROAD TRESTLE

L. M. Schindler, city engineer, received notice this week from the war department office at Milwaukee that the Chicago and Northwestern railroad company has requested a permit to construct a retaining wall and make a fill in the Fox river in front of the Atlas mill of the Kimberly Clark Paper company. The retaining wall is to be 161 feet long and will hold back the proposed fill. The notice says the railroad company plans to abandon its present tracks and trestle bridge in favor of a new line to be laid on top of the fill. Mr. Schindler said the city probably would not oppose the improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Quinn and children have gone to Milwaukee to spend the week at the state fair.

CARE FOR TRAFFIC
This plan was considered before the war, but had to be postponed. It is proposed now to extend the great highway to Saint Germain, linking up the Avenue de la Grande Armee, the Avenue de Neuilly and the Avenue de la Defense to Nanterre, and joining the main road.

The highway, when completed, will provide passages for pedestrians, cyclists, equestrians, vehicular traffic and an electric railway service from the Ecole into the suburbs. The increase in traffic, particularly motor traffic, has made this great artery necessary.

ASK COURT TO DELETE
SCOLDING OF LAWYERS

Madison—(P)—A petition is being circulated among lawyers in Madison asking the supreme court to delete the reprimand to lawyers embodied in that court's decision in disbaring O. A. Stolen, former superior court judge.

The petition was prepared by a committee of local attorneys who signed the original petition for leniency which was condemned and refused by the high bench.

The document now being circulated requests the court to reconsider its decision in refusing to accept the previous petition and to revise the written opinion of the court by striking out the condemnatory terms.

A brief is to accompany the petition when it is presented to the supreme court. The brief will claim the attorneys acted within their rights when submitting the original petition.

"VROOMAN BILL" SUBSTITUTE FOR McNARY-HAUGEN

New Plan Has All Good Features of Old and Several More Besides

Washington—If the friends of the farmer adopt the slogan "McNary-Haugen or bust" they probably will go bust insofar as the Seventieth Congress is concerned.

It seems more certain than ever that President Coolidge will veto the McNary-Haugen bill if Congress passes it again and as this certainty grows some of the more thoughtful members of the farm bloc are looking around for a rose under another name which will smell just as sweet.

Whether the scheme finally chosen will actually be a compromise or a little sister of McNary-Haugen is likely to depend on whether the administration feels compelled to take the agricultural discontent seriously, but the farm bloc does not now show any strong disposition to give up any of its principles.

Considerable attention is now being paid to the "Vrooman Bill," a piece of proposed legislation submitted by Carl S. Vrooman, of Bloomington, Ill., a former assistant secretary of agriculture. Some of those who have been fighting for the McNary-Haugen bill observe that they would get just as much out of the Vrooman plan as the McNary-Haugen scheme if the president could be persuaded to sign it.

WOULD PAY BOUNTY
The most serious opposition to the Vrooman plan will center upon its proposal to pay bounties on export farm crops whenever an emergency occurs in which the farmer doesn't get a "fair price." As in the McNary-Haugen bill, this provision is designed to give the farmer the benefit of the tariff which he cannot derive so long as he raises a surplus and thus has to meet foreign low-price competition.

Instead of the McNary-Haugen equalization fee, Vrooman would square things with the farmer by having the government pay a bounty on all exported surplus when an emergency was officially declared. The money would actually come out of the treasury, for it is proposed that a system of export debentures be created up to the amount of the tariff on the particular crop and 3 cents a pound, by special proviso, for cotton. These debentures, or bounty certificates, would be issued by the treasury to the exporter and would be good for the payment of import duties. The exporting farmer could sell them to whomsoever he cared to for so much cash.

Vrooman says the bounty plan eliminates President Coolidge's criticisms of the equalization fee difficult to administer and points out that the farmer has to pay the cost of relief in only a slight degree as compared with the equalization fee.
It is obvious, however, that most of the Coolidge objections to the McNary-Haugen bill are equally valid as applied to the Vrooman bill and unless the administration is extremely anxious to satisfy the farmer almost regardless of cost, it seems that Coolidge would repeat his veto if the Vrooman bill actually should be adopted and passed by the farm bloc in Congress.

FARM BOARD
The bill provides for a Federal Farm Board of four or five $10,000-a-year members appointed by the president, who would be provided with federal capital to the extent of $300,000,000.

The board would follow closely all crop prices and prospects and other agricultural factors and inform all co-operative and agricultural groups interested in wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, rice, cotton, cotton-seed, tobacco, beef cattle and hogs.

It would make loans at interest to crop producers or handlers and, if necessary, store sufficient percentages of crops when unusual surpluses occur "to secure for the farmer reasonable prices for his crops."

One of the most interesting provisions is that the board would set up a system of crop acreage limitation to serve as a safety valve and "check possible over-expansion as farming again becomes profitable."

Vrooman proposes a series of unpaid Crop Acreage Control Committees for each state, county and township, which would allot acreages. Vrooman suggests various methods of pressure on "the occasional individual who failed to conform to his allotment."

W. H. C. TO MEET AT MADISON THIS MONTH

The second annual homecoming of the Wisconsin Historical society will be observed at Madison on Sunday and Monday, Sept. 4 and 5. It is announced, and will be featured by special museum exhibits showing the early history of agriculture, surveying, transportation and farm tools and machinery. For the convenience of workmen who have the greater part of their day on Monday taken up, the museum will be opened from 2 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. on Sunday. Opening hours on Monday will be from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Included among the exhibits will be the pioneer dairy equipment and original model of Dr. Babcock's famous milk tester, a threshing machine used in Wisconsin in 1845, and pictures of pioneers and pioneer homes, dairies and letters. The library will exhibit a collection of very early imprints, including the excessively rare volume called the Nuremberg Chronicle, 1493, which contains over 2,000 elegant woodcuts.

An address on pioneer agriculture will be given by Prof. K. L. Hatch of the College of Agriculture, and specialists in agriculture and dairying will assist the museum force in explaining the exhibits. Visitors are invited to bring picnic luncheon and lunch together on Muir Knoll, University grounds.

Are you fighting against middle-age?

ONE OF the most critical periods of a woman's life comes between 45 and 50. Most women dread the approach of middle-age because they know, only too well, the depressing ailments it brings.

The best preparation for this period a woman can have is a good physical condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help her to gain strength and energy. It builds up the appetite and induces natural sleep. The following letters were written by women of middle-age.

AFTER LONG SUFFERING

South Omaha, Nebraska: "After fifteen years of terrible suffering each month with sick headaches I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have felt my health steadily improving. After taking your medicine for almost a year and a half, I believe I can say the headaches have left me. I also was troubled with nervousness. I am feeling fine now and do all my work myself. I am the mother of six, and manage an eight-room house without anybody to help. I feel that I am entirely well." Mrs. Adolph Bratke, 4316 South 13th St., So. Omaha, Nebraska.

Remember this package. None genuine without the signature of Lydia E. Pinkham.

MRS. BOLLERMAN'S CASE

West Hoboken, N.J.: "I was troubled with headaches, weakness, flushes of heat to the face and head and loss of appetite. I would often get so weak I could hardly stand. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take the medicine. After the first few bottles I began to feel stronger and could eat better and had fewer headaches. I am a well woman today, and feel like a different person. You may use this letter for every case. I will answer any letters sent to me." SECOND A. E. F. TO
HAVE JOYOUS TIME
ON TRIP OVERSEAS

Paris All Set to Give Former Doughboys Great Welcome When They Enter City

Paris—The A. E. F., in rest billets and recreation camps used to remark occasionally that this business of going to France wouldn't be such a bad racket if only there wasn't a war going on.

For France itself, as a goal for travelers, has its points.

Accordingly, when the French government sent to the American Legion convention in 1924 a warm invitation to the legionnaires to hold their 1927 convention in Paris, the former A. E. F.ers lost little time in accepting.

And now the vanguard of the "Second A. E. F." is descending on Paris once more. The 1927 convention of the American Legion is about to open in the capital of France and some 30,000 ex-servicemen are on the way.

PARIS IS READY
Everything here is in readiness. The vast hall of the Palais Trocadero, where the sessions will be held, is decorated and refurbished; the Palais d'Orsay, where the famous "40 and 5" will convene, has been prepared for anything; the Hotel Continental is ready to respond to the trend of those feminine feet that will bear the lady members of the legion auxiliary to Paris.

The coming convention is not going to be just another convention. It is going to be an international event and France and the legion have laid their plans accordingly.

First and foremost, the legion has fixed things so that individual members can make the trip much more cheaply than they could if they went as ordinary tourists. American railways have granted half-fare privileges. European railways have shaved off prices sharply. Steamship companies have reduced their rates also.

BIG SAVING MADE
Thirty thousand hotel rooms in Paris were contracted for by the legion long ago. These contracts were signed while the franc was low and big savings are the consequence. Motor transportation has been arranged for most of the battlefields tours, at a further saving.

Altogether, it is estimated that the legion members can make the trip for at least $250 less than it would cost if he went as a private individual.

Some of the veterans are already here. The bulk of them, however, will not arrive until the third week in September, when the liner, Levant, which carried so many thousands of soldiers during the war and which has been designated flagship of this second legion, docks with General Pershing, National Commander Howard Savage, many other distinguished guests and a whole host of ordinary ex-high privates.

MANY TOURS PLANNED
The meetings of the legion in Paris will comprise only a part of the activities. Extensive tours to all battlefields where American troops fought have been arranged. These tours have been divided into five districts—the first district including northern France and Belgium; the second, the Aisne-Marne region and Chateau Thierry; the third, Verdun and the Meuse-Argonne sector; the fourth the St. Mihiel region; the fifth the Champagne country east of Rheims.

In addition, many legions are planning tours to other countries. Eighteen European nations have announced they will accept the legion identification certificates in lieu of passports.

Four of the welfare organizations that served the A. E. F. during the war are ready to serve the visiting legionnaires. The Red Cross has made ready first aid stations in Paris and at other points in France; the Knights of Columbus has secretaries on all the ships, to provide for creature comforts; the Salvation Army has a number of huts established and is all ready to start frying barrels of doughnuts again and the American Library Association has opened numerous reading rooms here in Paris.

THE BIG PARADE
The high point of the convention, which opens Sept. 19 and closes Sept. 24, will be the big parade on Sept. 19.

In the Place des Invalides, under the shadow of the dome of the tomb of Napoleon, the parade will form, to proceed down the Avenue du Gallieni, named in honor of the general who marshaled France's famous "taxicab army" at the first Battle of the Marne.

Thence the marchers will cross the Seine on the Pont Alexandre III, swinging to the left until they reach the Avenue President Wilson. Then they will turn down the Avenue d'Iena to the Arc de Triomphe.

Here the French government has prepared a great honor for them. For the first time in history, it is according to representative of a foreign government, the privilege of passing under one arch of this famous monument. The legionnaires will observe complete silence as they pass through the bands will be still and the marches will proceed with bared heads past the tomb of the unknown soldier.

PAST HISTORIC SPOTS
Then the parade will pass down the world-famous Champs-Élysées to the Place de la Concorde, where stood the guillotine that beheaded a king and queen of France during the French revolution. From this historic spot it will proceed, along streets lined with world-famous buildings, to the Boulevard des Tuileries, where it will disband.

Paris will make a holiday for this event. The government will have many airplanes circling over the city.

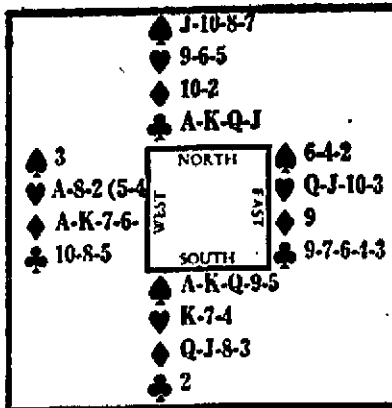

The first official act of the legion will be to place a wreath upon the tomb of the unknown soldier. This will occur on Sunday, Sept. 19, on the eve of the convention sessions. Two days later the legion, in a body, will tribute to the American World War dead in impressive ceremonies.

BE SUFFICIENTLY IMPORTANT

Yesterday's hand was:

East trumps his partner's Ace (a play that has been ridiculed in song and story but which at times is very important) because he can see that it is the best chance to save game. BEGIN HERE TODAY

VERA CAMERON, efficient private secretary in the Peach Bloom Cosmetics Co., shares an apartment with her, frivolous aunt, FLOKA CARTWRIGHT. Flora chides Vera for her long skirts, braided hair, spectacles, low-heeled shoes and business-like manner.

When the promotion in the company she expects is given to ROSEMARY FITCH, Vera wonders if her aunt's chiding could hold an explanation for this disappointment. Her promotion as assistant to JERRY MACKLYN, the new advertising manager crowds this disappointment from her mind. Jerry proposes an advertising scheme to transform Vera, with the aid of Peach Bloom cosmetics, into a beauty and to photograph her in each stage of the transformation. Vera indignantly refuses and determines to resign but when she sees and falls instantly in love with a man whom she hears, called SCHUYLER, she reconsiders and tells Jerry she will undergo the experiment. Anything she tells herself, to become beautiful, for she has overheard Schuyler say he is going to Lake Minnetonka in late June and she resolves to go there too. Jerry and KITTY PROCTOR, a professional demonstrator, decide to make Vera over, taking for a model an uncaptured Sunday supplement picture Jerry finds in his desk. Just before she leaves her aunt's apartment to take up residence with Kitty Proctor for the three weeks required for the transformation, PETER DARTROW, Flora's latest love, angers Vera by ignoring her and she resolves to bring him to heel. At the end of three weeks Vera and Jerry go to Flora's apartment and find her and Peter there. They are dazzled with Vera's beauty and Peter is smitten. Vera tells them that she is going to Minnetonka in June. Jerry agrees to help but his eyes are almost somber with foreboding.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VIII

Flora Cartwright closed the door of Vera Cameron's bedroom upon herself and spoke in a grimly determined voice to her niece, whom she had surprised in the act of contemplating her brand-new beauty in the mirror of her dressing-table. "I want to know exactly what this means. You leave this apartment just three weeks ago an old-fashioned, spinsterish young woman, and you come back tonight a stunning beauty, dressed like a Fifth Avenue Easter parade and with an adoring male in tow. I've come for the story and I'm going to get it if I have to sit on your chest and pull the words out of those fascinating lips of yours."

"All right, Aunt Flora," Vee-Vee smiled in spite of her weariness. "I should have invited you in for bedtime confidences, but I thought you'd be engrossed with Peter for an hour or two more, and I wanted to get to bed early, I'm dead."

"You don't look it," Flora retorted, with a slight edge to her voice. "And I may as well confess that young Peter and I have quarreled—over you. I sent him away, and told him not to come back. I've been trying to get rid of him for three weeks, and I don't want you to think for a minute that I'm jealous."

On, Aunt Flora, I'm sorry he did

Jack was one of the nicest husbands I ever had. If he hadn't been so unreasonable about alimony I'd marry him again, the darling. Now—tell me!"

"I wish I'd had the nerve to follow Schuyler," Vee-Vee murmured, her lovely face dreamy-eyed and wistful. "What name did you say?" Flora asked sharply. "Schuyler?"

"That's—just a name I made up to call him by," Vee-Vee lied.

"I once knew a man named Schuyler," Flora told her. "And if I ever see him again—but go on, dear."

"There's almost nothing to tell," Vee-Vee flushed. "I was going down in the elevator when this man got on and I simply fell in love with him. He was the most thrillingly handsome man I've ever seen in my life, but that wasn't all—his eyes were sad and wistful, as if he's known a great sorrow."

"He has excellent technique," Flora laughed. "And then—?"

"I overheard him tell the man he was with that he was going to Lake Minnetonka for the last half of June and then later in the summer up to Maine for the hottest weather. And Aunt Flora, I knew then that I'd go to Lake Minnetonka if it took the last cent I had in the world."

"Then you went back and told Jerry Macklyn you'd accept his odious offer to make a beauty out of you for advertising purposes. It's all criminal, clear now, darling, and I'll do everything I can to help you. By the way, does Jerry Macklyn know the story of the handsome stranger?"

"Certainly not!" Vera was indignant. "Do you think I'd go around telling just anybody what a fool I am?"

"I wouldn't say that Jerry Macklyn is just—anybody," Flora smiled and her blue eyes took on that dreamy softness that Vera knew so well. "Of course," she recovered herself briskly. "You realize that Pygmalion has fallen in love with his Galatea?"

"That's silly!" Vee-Vee retorted, but a flush dyed the cream satin of her cheeks. "Remember—he knew me when!"

"All the more reason why he'd fall for you now. He made you, didn't he?"

"For advertising purposes," Vee-Vee reminded her.

"Are you sure you don't want Jerry Macklyn?" Flora asked her softly.

"Dead sure. I know the man I want—and it is not Jerry Macklyn!"

"Then, dear, shall we strike a bargain?" Flora asked with insinuating sweetness. "You can have Peter Dartrow to practice on if you'll promise to play a strictly business game with Jerry Macklyn. And I'll teach you everything I know about the art of attracting a man and bringing him to the point of popping the question. Is it a bargain?"

"You mean—you want Jerry Macklyn yourself?" Vee-Vee stepped back and regarded her aunt with blazing green eyes.

"That put's it crudely, but fairly accurately," Flora retorted coolly.

"Aunt Flora, I'm—I'm not going to have you playing with Jerry Macklyn, deliberately leading him on to propose to you, then breaking his heart!"

"Who said anything about breaking his heart?" Flora laughed, but there was a tremble in her voice. "My day is nearly done, Vee-Vee. Yours is just beginning. You'll be marrying and leaving me any day now, though heaven knows I never dreamed before tonight that I'd have to worry about that! And I may as well confess that

5,570 ACCIDENTS IN STATE IN 3 MONTHS

Total Is Much Less Than for Same Period in Previous Year

Madison—(P)—The state engineering department's work in cooperation with the industrial commission has been detailed in a quarterly report of Charles A. Halbert, state chief engineer.

There have been 5,570 accidents reported to the commission during the second quarter of 1927 the report showed. This is a reduction of 628 compared with the previous quarter and 1,473 less for the first half of 1927 as compared with the same period of 1926.

In accidents for which the commission awarded industrial compensation during 1926, the average payment amounted to $221 per injury for compensation and medical aid alone.

The report continues: "Using the same cost per injury for the decrease in 1927 as compared with 1926, this means a saving of $425,533 in compensation and medical aid to employers or their insurance carriers."

District deputies of the state engineer, working under notice of the industrial commission, made 2,453 visits to places of employment and investigated 435 accidents for the commission; the report reveals. Buildings, fire escapes, elevators and heating and ventilating systems were gone over by the engineer's industrial commission representatives.

Employers numbering 781 were interviewed both in the field and in the commission offices. In the inspection routine, the engineers visited 768 plants, inspected 472 boilers, 63 refrigerating machines, looked into the general safety and fire prevention regulations in 164 factories, issued orders on the safe operation of 1,102 boilers and received 2,545 reports on boiler explosion insurance, railroad boiler upkeep, and boiler shop safety.

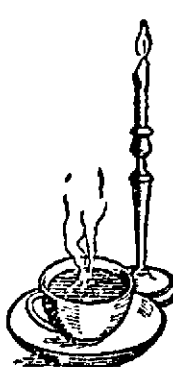

The engineers made 300 individual inspections in 100 towns and 2,438 inspections in business districts of 76 towns with a view to improving means of fire prevention.

BRINGING UP FATHER IN POLITICS

A new style of musical comedy has been established in the latest triumph, "Bringing Up Father in Politics," which is to be the attraction at the Appleton Theatre, for a matinee and night performance, the matinee commencing immediately after school dismisses on Wednesday, September 7. The offering as its title indicates is based on the famous cartoons of George McManus. Not so long ago somebody made the assertion that these comics were a national institution and as essential to the happiness of the community as the laws of the land. Millions of folks have been set a laughing through the antics and exploits of those famous, yet beloved characters—"Jiggs Mahoney," "Maggie," his termagant wife, and "Dinty Moore." In this up-to-the-second vehicle this trinity of favorites will have plenty of scope to demonstrate their ideas of disseminating fun and adding brightness and joy to the world. "Maggie" has aspirations. She wants Jiggs to be either President, Governor, Mayor or hold some such high office within the gift of the citizens of these United States. So he enters the political arena assisted by "Dinty" who succeeded in upsetting Maggie's greatest dreams, but eventually contributing a satisfactory denouement. If you have grown in avoirdupois or become mentally alert through the humor, screams, revelry, screams or tribulations of the renowned "Jiggs" in the realms of the dailies, you will not doubt become an extra convert to his present adventures and vicissitudes on the stage. All in all with its multitude of original ingredients, surprises and novelties, jingling melodies and beautiful women "Bringing Up Father in Politics" is bound to set a pace in hilarity that will be difficult for competitive offerings to follow.

MONTE BLUE HITS HARD IN "THE BUSH LEAGUER"

At Fischers Appleton Theatre Thursday and Friday will be shown an uproarious version of the old story of the ugly duckling who became the swan. It was the style in the little Idaho village which was "Specs" White's home, to razz the lad, to speak lightly of the gas pump which he had invented to on which he meant to make a fortune one day. But Specs played ball with the bush league team, on the sand lot next his gas station, and played so well that a scout for a Los Angeles team urged him to come on to that famous city for a try-out. Specs may not have listened to the stranger but the fact that a certain pretty young lady, having stopped at the gasoline station to get her gasoline replenished, had smiled at him, and whirled away, losing her license tag. Specs had found it, and its inscription, "Los Angeles, etc.," and determined to set out on quest of the lady whereupon the chance offered. Here was the opportunity. To Los

DANCERS AT DE PERE FAIR

Capillo and De Negri, international dancers direct from the Teatro de Heroes, Chihuahua, Mexico, and featured in "World's Features of 1927," the mammoth scenic production to be presented at the Northeastern Wisconsin Fair at DePere. The performers were especially commended by President Calles on their Mexican character dances, and were later guests of the president while in Mexico City. Capillo and De Negri offer five team dances and a number of solos, with complete changes of their beautiful costumes.

Angeles he went, and unmercifully ridiculed by Skeeter McKinnon the catcher and others, he lost all the knock he had displayed on the home lot. It was here that the pretty lady again bobbed up, smiled on Specs, revived his fainting courage, spurred him on to win the game and to foil the attempt of her manager (for let it be known, the fair one owned the team on which Specs played) in his attempt at dirty work. "The Bush Leaguer" is a wholesome, amusing and wonderfully human piece Monte Blue, who has endeared himself to so many millions, as every sort of red-blooded hero, outdoes even himself, in this new role. Clyde Cook and William Demarest are a team of comedians to remember chuckling and Leila Hyams, who appeared with Monte Blue in "The Brute," is extremely good to look at. Howard Bretherton has directed with sure insight. The photography is of the most modern type.

"The Bush Leaguer" is a sincere and authentic bit of roughneck life that no one should miss seeing. It is tonic, hilarious, you'll root for it.

We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to the neighbors, friends and relatives for their many acts of kindness and sympathy extended to us in our hour of deep sorrow in the death of our beloved husband and father.

We wish especially to thank the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Chas. Sorenson for his kind ministrations and also those who sent such beautiful floral tributes and who so generously offered the use of their automobiles. Mrs. William Asmus and Family. adv.

OLD OFFICE OF PAPER COMPANY DEMOLISHED

The old office of the Kimberly-Clark Paper company, at the foot of the Jackson-st hill and directly in the path of the new street to be constructed there, has been torn down by the street department and filling for the new street was to be started Tuesday morning. The new street, instead of crossing the railroad tracks and then later recrossing them, will continue on the north side of the track, eliminating two grade crossings.

The path of the new street is now a steep hillside which will be cut into with the aid of a caterpillar tractor. The ground taken from the hill will be used to fill in at the bottom of the hill to bring the road to a higher level. As soon as the new street has been laid out and graded to level, the Wilson Construction company, of Appleton, will begin paving the street. Payment is to be had from Prospect-ave, the top of the hill, to the foot of the hill. It is not expected that paving will start for two weeks.

LOWER MASON-ST WALK TO LEVEL OF CURBING

Lowering of the sidewalk on S. Mason-st from the viaduct nearly 200 feet south is rapidly being completed by the street department. Since the paving of that street, the road level and curbs were lowered several feet and the old sidewalk was more than 100 feet above the curb in places. The sidewalk is being lowered to a level with the curbs. A new sidewalk has been laid beneath the viaduct.

On Fourth-st, the sidewalk on the south side is to be set five feet to the south. There is a steep hill at this point which must be cut away to make room for the walk.

After the sidewalk has been lowered the crew will construct a retaining wall on Mason-st from the viaduct to a point 163 feet south, to hold back the silt which was formerly washed over the sidewalk and road from the hillside on the east. A small section of retaining wall also must be built on Fourth-st. It is expected that the work will be completed in four weeks.

APPLETON VALLEY LEAGUE TROUNCE GIRLS 12 TO 5

Ranger Ball Club Shows Strength For Girl Team, But Is No Match For Men

14 Appleton Players, Many at Strange Positions, Help Entertain Fans

The Ranger Bloomer girls undoubtedly would be easy victors over any girls' baseball team in the country but they still are far from a match for a male squad, unless several breaks favor them. That was proved to the satisfaction of a good crowd of spectators Tuesday afternoon at Brandt park when the Appleton Valley league squad beat the girls, 12-5, in 7½ innings of play. The girls showed flashes of real form during the game and also furnished plenty of amusement to the audience, in which they were aided by the Appleton players, who played every position they could shift to, and the ump, Ditch and Schabo. Fourteen local players were used.

SUNDAY GAMES APPLETON AT GREEN BAY

Oshkosh at Neenah
Kaukauna at Kimberly
Menasha, bye.

MONDAY GAMES NEENAH AT APPLETON

Oshkosh at Green Bay
Kaukauna at Menasha
Kimberly, bye.

It will be a big weekend in the Fox River Valley League baseball circles this week for all but two teams play two games on Sunday and Monday. Kimberly is one of the teams to draw a bye but the loop leaders probably wish they were playing. For even though they win their one game, they find themselves but a half game in lead. Green Bay can accomplish that step by two wins even though the K-C crew also wins its one game.

Green Bay now trails Kimberly by a game and by two runs while Kimberly loses its one win take first place by a half game. Two wins while Kimberly wins one will put it half game to the rear and a split while Kimberly wins will place it a game and a half to the rear.

Kimberly plays host to Kaukauna Sunday and with its present slump of two straight losses may lose to the Kaws, who would desire nothing better than the blood of their neighbors. Kimberly is looking for Appleton and Oshkosh to help its chances, as these are the teams the Bays must trounce over the two days. At the present way the teams are playing, Oshkosh appears to be the one that might do it, especially if Noel tops the mound, as his slovenly always bothers the Baysmen. Appleton, if going good, may beat Green Bay, but the Bays are strong favorites. Oshkosh engages Neenah Sunday and is a slight favorite though Nixon probably will face the Sawdusters after the easy game Appleton gave Neenah last time. If Nixon does and is on, Oshkosh will have tough sledding, especially as the Green Batters like Gietzen's shoots as well as Schneider's.

17-YEAR OLD CYCLIST IS NEW AMATEUR CHAMP

New York (AP)—Jimmy Walhour, 17-year-old New Yorker and a member of the century road club of America, today was crowned as National Amateur Cyclist champion.

Walhour came into his title before a crowd of 18,000 fans at the New York Velodrome Tuesday night after he raced to victory in the five-mile amateur championship event.

Walhour took second on an error. She held second on Tuman's single, but scampared to third on Scott's fly to first base. Tuman shot second but Plut fanned for the final out. Appleton ended its last two on a triple by Van Wyck, a single by Crowe and errors on drives by Hillman and Eggert.

The girls loaded the sacks in the first of the eighth with a walk and two singles, with one down. The next batter fanned and the next hit to shortstop, forcing the runner from second at third.

In the sixth Crowe walked and took second on a passed ball, scoring on Eggert's infield hit. The girls added two more. Delmer got a life on an error and Tuman walked. Scott singled to center to fill the sacks with none down. Plut walked, forcing in a run and after two had fanned, Bohle walked forcing in another. The next batter rolled to first.

In the seventh Watson walked and took second on a passed ball, scoring on Eggert's infield hit. The girls added two more. Delmer got a life on an error and Tuman walked. Scott singled to center to fill the sacks with none down. Plut walked, forcing in a run and after two had fanned, Bohle walked forcing in another. The next batter rolled to first.

Badgers Expected To Cop Two Games And Lose Three

Madison (AP)—Wisconsin will win two football games and lose three, if Wisconsin is lucky.

That is the "official dope" on football prospects at the State University this fall. And as never before the "dopesters" are predicting sad results.

Coach Thistlethwaite, who led the University of Northwestern football squad through the Big Ten conference, forcasts and enters into the open to share the football spotlight with Michigan, has said nothing.

The truth is, Coach Thistlethwaite never talked much when he had something to talk about and with the material he has at Wisconsin he undoubtedly will not be charged with verbosity.

The situation does leave the new coach in a position where he has little to lose and everything to gain. Thistlethwaite has great material, at least on his coaching staff. Including, Tom Lieb, line coach, Irv. Uteritz, back-

BAY PACKERS OPEN SCHEDULE SEPT. 11

Nov. 20—Green Bay at Chicago (Bears).
Nov. 24—Green Bay at Philadelphia.
Nov. 27—Pending.
Dec. 4—Green Bay at New York.
Dec. 11—Green Bay at Providence.

Green Bay—A week from Sunday, the Green Bay Packers will open their 1927 football season at the City stadium against the Milwaukee Badgers, headed by Johnny Bryan, in a non-league game.

Another shift in the schedule was announced as Dayton will play here on Sunday Sept. 18, in the first game of the National League schedule. The Dayton club was originally booked for Oct. 23 but Manager Rodolfo of the Triangles agreed to come up here at an earlier date so as to partly make the way for Red Grange and his New York Yankees to appear here on Oct. 23. The Grange date is only pending however.

If Grange comes to Green Bay, it will give the Packers eight games at home. This is the heaviest at home schedule which has ever been attempted by a Green Bay team. However, in view of the choice attractions, such as Cleveland with Benny Friedman, Ernie Nevers and his Duluth club and the Chicago Cards and Bears, ancient enemies of the Big Bay Blues, the Packers management feels confident that the ever-growing football club will be able to handle the onslaught of Wisconsin and upper Michigan will rally to the support of the Packers and more than ever help carry the financial load.

Dave's Dots And Dashes

Rumors floating about the city will increase Appleton high school's hopes for a Valley conference football championship this fall more than 75 percent if they prove to be true. They have it that two experienced ends, both six-footers and both letter winners at other state high schools, will enter the local school when it starts Tuesday. This will greatly help the Orange as at present one of last year's regular ends, Jack Schaefer, is out for at least a month or six weeks with a bad knee and there is little reserve material in the school.

With the two new ends and Hartung, a regular last year, the squad will be well supplied in its important wing position and might even use one of the men at a halfback job. Then again while there is a good first team line in prospect, reserve linemen also are scarce and one of the three six-footers might come in handy as a reserve tackle or guard when shifted from end during a game. The fact that Appleton has few good reserves for a Valley conference football championship is a sad thing to see under the circumstances.

"Old man" Brautigan may have lost the ability to step around a ball diamond in the style which he was famous for in the last few years, but the old baseball "coop" is still as keen as in his palmier days. The veteran pulled a hot one when playing against the Dons A. C. Saturday afternoon that was one for the book and the best part of it was that Charlie Stock was one of the victims of the trick. Now, you know, is considered one of the smartest benches in baseball and is noted for having a top-notch ball club, no matter which outfit he organizes or decides to handle.

Charley was coaching on third with one of his players on second. The batter struck a speedy drive through Brautigan to centerfield and the runner tore for third and rounded the sack toward home. Though the ball was in center field, Brautigan went through all the motions of a pickup, ran threateningly toward third with his throwing arm upflitted and faked a peg to the sack. The runner cut back to third, faked the sack and then he was under the expected peg, but it never came back. Van Wyck threw the ball in from center and Charley and the runner, who should have been home for several minutes, looked on sheepishly as the crowd laughed.

We can't get the Dons out of our mind, so keen a ball club were they. We've never seen an amateur team before show so much "big league" stuff. As one fan said, "they don't run to first on an infield hit, they sprint." It takes an extra fast peg to get them even on a speedily-hit ball. All the action was in the top of the inning. At least two men, Wozniak, the hurler, and Stedman, the third sacker, are ready for at least American Association play right now.

JACK DEMPSEY TRAINS FOR SPEED FOR GENE

One thing Jack Dempsey needs to beat Gene Tunney, when they meet in Chicago for the world's heavyweight championship next month, is speed. Jack knows it only too well and he's bending every effort at his Lincoln Fields training camp to acquire speed in his punches. The ex-champion is working on the bouncing dummy and the punching bag. Well, he expects to be more than fit when he steps in the ring at Soldiers' Field to make the supreme effort to regain the title he lost to Tunney last year at Philadelphia.

GENE'S METHODS

Remember Gene Tunney having his methods of exercises recorded recently? Well, here he is taking them according to his directions from a record. This is the heaviest at home schedule which has ever been attempted by a Green Bay team. However, in view of the choice attractions, such as Cleveland with Benny Friedman, Ernie Nevers and his Duluth club and the Chicago Cards and Bears, ancient enemies of the Big Bay Blues, the Packers management feels confident that the ever-growing football club will be able to handle the onslaught of Wisconsin and upper Michigan will rally to the support of the Packers and more than ever help carry the financial load.

K. C. BOWLERS START NEW 16-TEAM LEAGUE

A 16-team bowling league for the 1927-28 season was started at a meeting of Knights of Columbus plannet Tuesday evening at the home of Henry Otto. The teams were chosen tentatively and the prize list was prepared, but the completion of a schedule was left for the next meeting. Captains of the 16 teams were chosen and the league will start on September 1st. The league will have to ascertain whether they will bowl this year, before the teams can be completed.

Henry Otto was reelected chairman of the bowling committee with Joe Heindl as secretary and Lawrence Schreier as treasurer. Other members chosen were Henry Marx and John Schneider. Plans were made for an extra long season of two rounds, starting Sept. 19 and ending April 19. If enough alleys can be secured, it was reported that four alleys at the Elk club will be ready for use by Sept. 17 and the K. C. men will attempt to secure these alleys for one shift on two nights a week, with eight teams rolling each night. The teams would roll on Monday and Tuesday evenings on a single shift.

JIMMY SLATTERY IS NEW BOXING CHAMPION

Hartford, Conn. (AP)—In the eyes of the National Boxing association Jimmy Slattery of Buffalo is the new light heavyweight champion. Slattery was awarded the referee's decision over Maxie Rosenbloom of New York at the end of ten rounds of milling here Tuesday night.

The National Boxing association, representing officially 24 state boxing commissions and affiliated groups in four foreign countries, has refused to recognize Mike McGuire, whom the New York State Athletic commission selected to succeed Jack Delaney, when he retired recently.

Slattery carried on a cautious campaign against Rosenbloom. He was content to let the New Yorker do most of the leading but his own counter hitting piled up a majority of points. The Buffalo battler excelled at both short and long range.

SCHLAFERS HELD TO 2 HITS AT DENMARK

Weak Batting Loses Sunday Battle for Hardwaremen by 12-3

McDermid's shots were too much for the Schafer Hardware Co. baseball team of Appleton Sunday afternoon when it played the Denmark team at Denmark and he let the local boys down with one safe blow in eight frames. Wansh relieved him in the ninth and the Hardwaremen garnered another hit off his delivery for a two-hit total. The score of the game was 12-3 for the Denmark batters.

Mike King was the star for the losers, getting both safes, scoring two runs and driving in the third. His hit off Wansh in the ninth was a long homerun over the rightfielder's head which scored a teammate ahead of him. The first Schlafers came to score came in the first when P. King reached first on a missed third strike and M. King singled to right, but the next batters fanned.

Denmark scored in every inning but the first and fourth, pounding Laabs for 12 hits, several of which should have been easy outs. The size of the home team score was largely caused by poor fielding on the part of the Appleton lads. Denmark had only six earned runs, but scored 12. McDermid had 19 strikeouts, three times getting all three men to face him in a single frame. Laabs had 11, getting all the men to face him in two frames. Marx handled Laab's slants and Miller caught for Denmark.

GIANTS COP THIRD IN ROW FROM CUBS

Bruin Lead Cut to 2½ Games as McGraw Clan Beats Percy Jones

The Cubs, Chicago's hope for a National League baseball championship and a world's series have played their last game of the season in Polo Grounds at New York. They may visit the metropolis next October to play the Yankees, but they will have to get out of a bad slump that continued through three straight against the Giants. The Cubs came here with a five and one half game lead and departed with a margin of two and one half games.

Leslie Mann started the Giants on the way to their seventh straight victory Tuesday by smashing the first ball pitched by Percy Jones for a home run. The McGraw men outlasted the Bruins to get the business end of a 7-3 score.

New York has won 22 out of its last 28 games and was right on the heels of the Cardinals and the Pirates. St. Louis had an opportunity to climb back into second place in its own right but the Dodgers rose up and smote the champions, 5-3.

Pittsburgh had to content with an own break against Philadelphia. Behind Herb Puetz's six hit twirling the Phils scuttled the Buccaners in the opener, 3-2. The Corsairs came out with a 12-6 margin in the second game.

The Braves returned to winning form by struggling 11 innings for a 2-1 win over Cincinnati. American league clubs were shifting battlefronts Tuesday and none of them got into action.

Indianapolis—Meyer Grace, Chicago, outpointed Chief Jack Elkhart, Pueblo, Colo. (10).

French Lass Will Bother Americans In Golf Meets

BY JIMMY POWERS
New York—It seems that some old bozo once opined that every dog has his day. He might have added that every woman golf player has her moments.

The 21st annual competition for the feminine golf championship of these United States is going to be a hot and hectic affair this coming Sept. 19 at Cherry Valley, L. I. Miss Simone Thion de la Chaume (play that one on your kettie drums) is the main and best looking reason. This flashing French dandel holds the championships of England and France "and," says Glennia Collett, New York's only "first class" player in the U. S. meet is going to stimulate the greatest interest the annual tournament has ever known.

"You see, ordinarily, it would be a fast meet anyhow, with Dorothy Page, Bernice Wall, Frances Haddfield, Maureen Orett, Virginia Van Wie and other aggressive young stars shooting well. But with Miss Thion de la Chaume, the competitive play of double European title she won so spectacularly, it is going to be a race with a distinct international flavor."

This French girl has a notable career in golf despite her youth. She began playing when seven years old but admits it was "only for amusement." She did not take up the game in earnest "until I was 10 years old" and then she put herself in the charge of Arnaud Maesey.

In 1924 the French star crossed the channel and tried for the British girls' championship. She won it 4 and 2, beating Miss Dorothy Ferguson. In 1927 the French star again hopped the channel and, although only 18 and still eligible for junior play, she entered the women's meet and ran away from her old enemy, Miss Pearson, in the finals. This by a count of 5 and 4.

For the first time in history the English title was taken out of the country. Just two weeks before, Miss Thion de la Chaume had captured her native crown at St. Cloud's. Since these two championships her most recent and important victory has been the international championship over the famous Touquet course in France, where she defeated Mrs. Johnston of Moor Park, England, by 15 and 12.

This score is hailed as a record for a major tourney and is a startling world's mark. No wonder our good-looking Glennia and the rest of the American girls are polishing up their mashes. The French mademoiselle seems to be plenty good.

WIGGINS MARVELS AT CHANGED GENE

Man Who Fought Tunney Twice Returns to Him as Sparring Mate

Speculator, N. Y. (AP)—An old ring foe of Gene Tunney, having swopped punches again with the Big Marine after a lapse of four years, marveled Wednesday at the changes time does make. He is Chuck Wiggins, veteran light heavyweight from Indianapolis. "For 14 years I've been fighting" Chuck soliloquized after his first soto as the heavyweight champion's newest sparring partner, and in that time I've met them all. Twice I fought Tunney. First in 1922 and again in 1925, and twice Gene licked me. I hadn't seen him since until Wednesday, but I want to tell you he's a different fighter now—a great fighter. He's so sure of every move he makes. Perhaps that's what being the champion does to you."

Wiggins boasts victories over Tiger Flower, former middleweight champion, and young Strubling. Gene punched the light bag for three rounds to top off a day that began with an hour and a half of road work in the morning.

After the workout Wednesday Gene will pack his ring paraphernalia for the trip to Chicago, scene of the boys' first fight, time defense on against Jack Dempsey, Sept. 22, and the final three weeks of intensive training.

HELEN WILLS TOPS WOMAN'S NET WORLD

California Girl Wins American Singles Title from Betty Nuthall

New York (AP)—Helen Wills Wednesday can call the women's tennis world her own. Climaxing a drive she began last June when she fought her way through the classic Wimbledon tournament to the continental championship, the 21-year-old California girl Tuesday conquered her final opponent in the American singles championship at Forest Hills. Miss Betty Nuthall of England 6-1, 6-4.

About Miss Wills defeated the pick of women stars of all the European nations. At home she disposed of one of the finest fields that ever competed in an American championship. The net result is undisputed supremacy for one year 1927. This is the fourth time in five years that "Little Feller" has been the queen of American tennis and she is still the hardest hitter that the women's game has ever known.

Helen Wills was and is supreme, but the means of her triumph Tuesday played Sunday and as a result feel Tuesday again the world of her age and I believe she will be the world's best in a few years."

VALLEY SPORTS DEMAND GAME WITH INTERLAKES

The Valley Sporting Goods Co. softball team increased its fine season's record by taking two of three games played Sunday and as a result feel confident enough to challenge the Interlake Pulp and Paper Co. squad, 1927 Appleton city league champions. The Sports lost to the Fox River Paper Co. squad by a single run, 7-6, and then beat the Menasha Prunes, a leading team of the Fall city, 8-3, and the Appleton Vire Woods, 5-1.

Crane headed all three games with Ellis as his receiver. For the Fox River, Last and Tornow formed the battery; for the Prunes, Hohnbeck and Omar; and for the Vire Woods, Verwey and H. Strutz.

The Sports challenge the Interlakes for a game next week and are expecting the mill team to take them up within that time. They have won 47 games this summer, lost 10 and tied 2. The O. K. Taxis were the only team to beat them and not take a drubbing in return. The Taxis won five games from the Sports. Other losses included those to Kimberly and Menasha, both of which also lost to the Sports in return battles.

FIVE APPLETON HORSES IN DEPERE FAIR RACES

Five Appleton horses were entered in the three events on Wednesday's card of harness racing at the North-eastern Wisconsin fair at De Pere. Fast pacers started in the 2:17 pace and young horses in the 2:30 pace and the 2:30 trot completed the program.

In the 2:17 pace the only Appleton entry was Dolly Vola, owned by J. A. DeBauer and Harry Oaks. In the 2:30 trot, local entries were Uncle Tom, William Madsen; Mobile Todd, J. A. DeBauer; and Laura Cochado, Phil Miller. In the 2:30 pace was Cochato, Charles Hopfensperger Co.

BREWERS-HENS SPLIT AS KANSAS CITY WINS

Milwaukee—The Brewers and Mudhens revived the once popular pastime of put and take for the edification of approximately 10,000 patrons Tuesday, the bargain day bill being split "arf" and "arf." The home crowd captured the first, 5 to 2, and the visitors grabbed the second, 12 to 6, this in a contest being called at the end of the eighth because of darkness.

As far as Milwaukee and Toledo are concerned the fifty-fifty split altered not their respective standing in the pennant race, which is second and third, respectively. But Kansas and Chicago have gone on both by calling on Columbus and now it will be 2-0 days before the Brewers can possibly take the lead.

COBB SETS NEW RECORD: HAS PLAYED 22 YEARS

Philadelphia, Pa. (AP)—Ty Cobb Wednesday began his twenty-third year in big league baseball. On Aug. 28, 1905, he joined the Detroit Tigers, where he remained as player and later as manager for 21 years.

In entering upon his twenty-third year Cobb is believed to have added another record to his long and brilliant career on the diamond. From 1905 to 1926, he has played 22 years.

Cobb spent all of his years in the majors with the Detroit club, until the present season opened. He was then signed by the Athletics.

JACK LOCKWILL AT SUMMER CAMP

The Indian boy ducked Buke Saunders' fist, and closed with him. Clutching the white bully round the body, he threw him with a leg lock. A grunt of astonishment came from Saunders as his big body crashed upon the ground. He had seized Tom Longpine, but the shock of the fall broke his hold, and the Indian snapped himself free and rose quickly to his feet.

"Don't let him get away!" shouted the assailant, scrambling up from the hard earth. "I'll smash him for that trick!" "You forced me to defend myself," said Tom.

Buke Saunders charged again. This time, however, he was careful not to let the young Indian grapple with him. Viciously, he struck low at Longpine's stomach.

Though the blow reached him, Tom leaped back in time to save himself from being hurt much. He sprang forward even more swiftly than he had retreated, and his moccasined foot smote Saunders fairly in the pit of the stomach, knocking him over backward. Then one of the other boys struck the Indian with a broken limb that had fallen from a dead tree. (To Be Continued)

RAISE TUITION IN HIGH SCHOOL OVER LAST YEAR'S RATE

Board of Education Will Meet Next Week to Determine New Scale

Tuition at Appleton high school will not be raised to $3, the maximum tuition fee for students living outside of the city limits, but it will be raised above the $2 formerly charged, Miss Carrie E. Morgan, assistant superintendent of schools, stated. The present tuition fee does not cover the cost of introduction per capita and will be raised to take care of this, it was said. The amount of the raise is to be determined at the meeting of the board of education next week.

Last year the per capita cost of instruction was about $82, whereas the tuition fee was only $2 a week or $12 a year. Except in five cases the towns paid the tuition for the 36 tuition students at Appleton high school last year. Where the town does not provide a high school, it is required to pay the tuition charged by the cities giving the schooling. The cities are permitted to charge only for the per capita cost of instruction which includes salaries and teaching supplies but not the upkeep of the schools, permanent improvement costs, and so on. Junior high school and grade tuitions will not be raised. Where districts do not provide certain grades for the children to attend, they are required to pay tuition in the city. Where the district clerk pays the fees $45 is charged but when individuals send their children to the city schools, even where the district provides a school, they pay their own tuition. In these cases, $25 a year is charged by the board of education.

POST $200 REWARD FOR ARREST OF EMBEZZLER

Reward of $200 has been offered by federal authorities for the arrest of C. L. Wilson, alias C. L. Cargill, alias C. L. Karghill, who is wanted in Washington for embezzlement. Wilson, a real estate salesman and a smooth talker, escaped from custody of federal officers in Los Angeles on May 25. He is described as 35 years of age, weight 155 pounds, 5 feet 8 inches tall, gray hair, and brown eyes.

According to police reports, Wilson may be accompanied by Miss Pat Finkle, age 26 years, 140 pounds, 5 feet 4 inches tall, with black hair and gray eyes.

There were 37 pupils in the Appleton grade schools last year for whom the district clerk paid the tuition, and 15 where the parents paid.

At the junior high school parents or the district clerk pay tuition for the seventh grades but the towns pay for the ninth grade as well as for the senior high school. In the ninth grades the towns paid for 48 pupils last year; the district clerk for two; and the parents for seven.

What the basis will be for increasing the senior high school tuition was not known by Miss Morgan. Whether the board would make an estimate of the cost of instruction for this year or would base it on the cost of last year was not determined. The per capita cost would be approximately the same either way, she said.

TO WIDEN CROSSING AT RAILROAD TRACKS

Convert Triangular Plot of Ground into Part of Present Streets

An improvement to convert the triangular plot at the junction of S. Outagamie and Prospect-ave into one large roadway, will be started next week by the street department and Chicago and Northwestern railroad. At present there is a small connecting road from where the streets intersect. It is the space within the triangle formed by these connecting roads that the improvement will be made.

Dissecting the triangle are two sets of railroad tracks and on either side of the tracks there are deep ditches for drainage purposes. Autoists who make a sharp turn to use the small connecting road from Prospect-ave to Outagamie, not knowing of these deep ditches, often crash into them. Drainage tile are to be laid in the ditches and they will then be filled. The railroad company will place boards between the tracks and it will then be possible to pass over the tracks at any point in the triangle without getting into the ditches.

NEW MAIL MESSENGER WILL BE HIRED SOON

Reports from the postal department on the 16 applications for the position of mail messenger in Appleton are expected soon by Fred Felix Wittenberg, acting postmaster. Bids on the work were made by the applicants and the lowest bidder who is otherwise acceptable will be given the work, he said. Several of the men had served in the United States army and war service will be given extra consideration in the report of the department.

Max Hoffman, mail messenger for the past four years, resigned recently. The messenger carries the mails to and from the railway stations and the postoffice.

NEW DRAIN SYSTEM INSTALLED IN PARK

All Parts of Alicia Park Now Well Drained as Result of City Employees' Work

When the elaborate drainage system now under construction at Alicia park is completed, that park will be so well drained that even after the heaviest storms no water will be found standing about the grounds and tourists may be certain they are camping in as dry a place as possible. The street department is doing the work under the supervision of L. M. Schindler, city engineer, and R. F. Hackworthy, street commissioner.

A total of 1,441 feet of drain tile, 750 feet of sewer and 118 feet of service pipe are included in the system. The service and sewer lines have been completed and about half of the drainage tile has been laid. The sewer carries sewage from the caretaker's cottage, and the two comfort houses in the park and is connected with the sewer on Cedar-st. The service pipe connects the houses with the park sewer. The drainage system is laid out to follow the natural lay of the land, as much as possible. All of the lines are constructed to empty into the park sewer. They are from 5 to 3 feet beneath the surface and slope toward the main sewer line. Pipes are laid end to end, with a small space between the joints. A six inch layer of heavy cinders is laid around the pipes and excavations then refilled. In a storm the water seeps through the ground to the cinders, through the cinders between the joints of the pipes and is carried through the pipe line by gravity to the main sewer and out into the river.

FEW CALLS FOR HELP RECEIVED FROM POOR

Scarcely any new applications for poor aid have been received during the past six weeks according to E. G. Schueler, city poor commissioner. Mr. Schueler said that work seems to be plentiful and transient laborers of the class which usually seeks aid during the winter months, are employed. He expects that calls for aid will begin to increase as soon as cold weather arrives.

Before the present system was started, the flood water was drained to the steep hill to the river. The beautiful bank was slowly being eaten away by the action of the water. This new drain system will stop this destruction. It is hoped to complete the system within the next two weeks, according to Mr. Hackworthy.
